

B

ernard joined Lubis, Santosa & Maramis in 2017 after spending several years as an associate at a premier law firm in Jakarta, specializing in capital market and general corporate affairs. He graduated from Universitas Katolik Parahyangan in 2013.

At Lubis, Santosa & Maramis, Bernard is a member of the Corporate and Commercial Practice Group, where he focuses his practice on general corporate and foreign investment. He has been representing and advising a wide range of clients in the trade, healthcare, mining, and retail sectors. He has also contributed a law article on infrastructure to an international publication.

In addition to his professional activities, Bernard is an avid sportsman, having interest in basketball and soccer, and loves to spend his spare time to play with his friends.

Bernard speaks English and Bahasa.